Johnson Admits Killing Wife; Tries To Suicide in Jail

Charles Johnson, who called his mother, Mrs. Vada Johnson, in McLeansboro Tuesday from San Diego, Calif., and told her his wife was dead in their apartment, has confessed to murdering his wife, according to San Diego officers.

The mother, after receiving the death telephone call from her son, called back to the San Diego police, relaying the message.

Charles was held on suspicion of murder when the coroner reported the dead woman died from a skull fracture and that her head was punctured in several places.

It is reported the Johnsons had engaged in a heated argument, ending with Charles beating his wife's head against shower handles and then putting the body in a filled bathtub.

The Johnsons had lived in Metropolis and Evansville before moving to California.

Surviving are the mother, Mrs. Clara Pursley of Lewisburg, Ky., four sisters and three brothers.

The body will be returned to Lewisburg for funeral and burial. Charles Johnson was placed in a psychiatric ward of a hospital after attempting suicide in jail. He will be given a preliminary hearing in San Diego to determine if there is sufficient evidence to warrant binding him over to Superior Court.

Placed on Probation

Delmar Unsell, 17-year-old Harrisburg youth, was placed on probation for one year by County Judge Trafton Dennis Wednesday. Unsell was charged with tampering with a vehicle.

Vote Saturday at Mitchellville on Building New Unit School Building

Voters Will Decide On Location, and $120,000 Bonds

Patrons of Independence Community Consolidated School District 53 will go to the polls Saturday, July 20, and vote on the location and construction of a new school building.

More than a year ago the patrons of nine districts—South Walnut Grove, North Walnut Grove, Pierson, Rudement, Spring Valley, Taylor, Winkelman, Duncan and Mitchellville — gave overwhelming approval to consolidate and formed Independence Community Consolidated School District 53.

J. P. Hilliard was the first president of the board of education and Frank Gidcomb now heads the board. Other members are Kenneth Barnes, Robert DeNeal, Roy Wise, Toby Lane, Willard Perkins and Mr. Hilliard.

In a letter to the patrons of the district Mr. Gidcomb and other members of the board of education state they believe the best location for the new building is just south and a little east of the present Mitchellville grade school and the ground is already under contract from Ray Williams and Lester Horton. The site is centrally located and will cut to a minimum the number of school bus miles necessary to transport the pupils to school, it is said.

The new school building will be of the very latest design. It will contain either six or eight classrooms plus an all-purpose room to be used as a cafeteria, for vocational education and for community gatherings. It will be modern in every sense of the word, completely equipped and the newest lighting design.

The letter continues by explaining the architect has estimated the cost of the building a $110,000, but voters will be asked to approve a $120,000 bond issue. But patrons are assured that no more bonds will be issued than just enough to cover the cost of construction.

The letter concludes — "Your school board believes that this is a sound program to meet our present and future needs and to meet State requirements. We urge you to go to the polls Saturday and vote. Vote as you choose, but vote."

If the proposed building program is approved it is believed the new consolidated district will be the first in Saline county to complete its building requirements.

Voting will be at the Mitchellville grade school, Saturday, July 20, with the polls open from 12 noon to 7 p. m.

Varied Program Completed for Saline County Fair to Open July 27

A varied program, designed to provide something of interest to all people of this area, has been completed for the Saline County Fair, which opens at the Harrisburg fair grounds Saturday, July 27.

Saturday will be entry day, and all entries in livestock and at the floral hall will have been judged by Sunday afternoon, the first day of regular entertainment.

The Tivoli carnival and shows will be on the grounds by Sunday afternoon.

Sunday afternoon the first thrill show of the week—big car races, will be presented. In the evening,

Changes in Rules For Entries at Saline County Fair

Changes in the rules for making entries at the Saline County Fair have been announced by fair officials, with the announcement the rules have been changed as a convenience to patrons of the Saline County Fair.

In past years all entries were accepted on the opening day of the fair, making for crowded conditions and resulting in the floral hall being closed to the public during the first day.

This year agricultural, textile and fine arts exhibits will be accepted on Saturday, July 27, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Entries in flowers and cooking classifications will be made Monday, July 29, 8 a. m. to 12 noon only. In all cases exhibits must be left at the floral hall at the time entries are filed.

Livestock entries are to be made on Monday, July 29, between the hours of 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The floral hall will be open for the public at 6 p. m. Monday, July 29.

The 51st annual Saline County Fair opens Sunday, July 28, and continues through Friday, Aug. 2.

Pat Kelly and his Shamrocks feature a "rock'n roll" revue, and in addition the recording unit of The Casuals will be on the stage.

Monday night, July 29, a "Grand Ole Opry" show from Nashville will be featured. Included will be the Country Boys, Judy Lynn, Johnny and Jack, Kitty Wells, Tennessee Mountain Boys and others.

Tuesday night will feature the annual Saline county beauty contest, sponsored by the Harrisburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, an attraction that has been a favorite of the fair goers for several years.

Wednesday night Jack Kochman and his auto daredevils will present another thrill show on the track in front of the grandstand.

A Western horse show will furnish the special attraction for Thursday night, and the fair will close Friday night with a full evening of society horse show.

Death Takes Mrs. T. J. Abbott, 87; Funeral Friday

Mrs. Dor. Abbott, 87, of 317 South Jackson street, Harrisburg, died in the Massac Memorial hospital Wednesday, following an illness of several weeks. The body will lie in state at the Rottman funeral home in Golconda, where the funeral will be held at 2 p. m. Friday.

Mrs. Abbott had lived in Harrisburg for about ten years, coming here from Golconda. Her husband, Thomas J. Abbott, preceded her in death in 1935. She is survived by her children, Mrs. Luther Armstrong, 317 East Ford street, and Robert J. Abbott of Harrisburg; Mrs. S. P. Ward, Metropolis; Mrs. Willis Yarborough, Mt. Vernon; Mrs. John Jackson, Carbondale; and Thomas J. Abbott Jr., Herrin. There are seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren surviving.

1,500 Evacuated From Red Bud Homes Because of Fumes

RED BUD, Ill. (AP) — Escaping hydrous ammonia fumes from an auxiliary tank forced some 1,500 of the 2,000 residents of Red Bud to flee their homes today.

Mayor Elmer Schuchman, who ordered the evacuation, said several persons were made ill. However, there were no reports of serious injury.

Schuchman said homes painted white would probably turn brown or black within the next few days, depending on the nearness to the leaking tank at the Claude Simpson plant. He also said the fumes, which cling close to the ground, were expected to kill plants and shrubbery.

Girl Plunges To Her Death

NEW YORK (AP) — The 24-year-old daughter of a Milwaukee industrialist and former Republican national committeeman plunged to her death Wednesday from a 28th floor penthouse apartment of a Park Ave. hotel.

She was identified by police as Patricia Philipp, the daughter of Cyrus L. Philipp and granddaughter of former Wisconsin Governor Emanuel Philipp.

In her pocketbook, police found an unaddressed note reading: "Dear Hon. This is the only way out. You are not to blame."

Police were unable to determine to whom the note was addressed, or the reason for the leap. Co-workers at the Allied Public Relations Associations, where Miss Philipp had been a secretary the last two months, could offer no reason for the apparent suicide.

Death Takes Frank Modglin, 74

He is survived by his wife, Katherine; his two sons, Nolen Modglin of Hammond, Ind., and Kenneth Modglin of Herod; his daughter, Mrs. Katie Saunders of Calumet City; his two sisters, Mrs. Lucian Gibbons of Harrisburg and Mrs. Frank Stille of Herod, and the following stepchildren: Mrs. Margaret Ann Hobson, Equality; Mrs. Betty Sue Wathen, Gary, Ind.; Mrs. Shirley Overton, Chicago; Mrs. Mary Edwards, Elkhart, Ind.; Leonard Mitchell, Maywood; and Gerald Mitchell, Chicago.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. in Bethel church with Rev. Clyde Vinard officiating. Burial will be in the Colbert cemetery, near Herod.

First Run by Fire Department Since June 17—But No Fire

The Harrisburg fire department made its first run since June 17 Wednesday afternoon, but there was no fire, so the city is now in its second month without a fire being reported.

The fire department was called to the 600 block on West Sloan when the starter on Roscoe Vaughn's automobile stuck and continued to grind away.

Vaughn called for mechanical assistance and also the fire department, being afraid the automobile might catch fire before a mechanic arrived.

The only damage was mechanical.

House, Senate Groups Vote Gov't Pay Hikes

Override Opposition Of Eisenhower; Postal Boost Also Approved

By United Press

Two congressional committees, overriding President Eisenhower's opposition, voted today in favor of pay increases for the government's 950,000 civil servants.

In developments on both sides of the Capitol:

—The House Post Office and Civil Service Committee approved pay boosts totalling 530 million dollars a year for the 950,000 classified civil service workers.

—The Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee favored a 341-million-dollar annual increase to the same federal employees.

The President has argued against this and other federal pay increase proposals on grounds they would aggravate the inflation.

Another bill, increasing the pay of postal workers by 12 per cent, is scheduled for House action and almost certain passage. It also was approved today by the Senate committee.

Other congressional news:

School Aid: The House Rules Committee cleared the federal school aid bill for a vote by the House. Speaker Sam Rayburn said the measure probably will be called up for action next Wednesday.

Cabaret Tax: The House Ways and Means Committee voted to cut the 20 per cent cabaret tax in half.

Civil Rights: Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland said advocates of President Eisenhower's controversial civil rights are ready to make some concessions to southern opponents. He declined to be specific.

Foreign Aid: Death of a member put off a showdown vote in the House on President Eisenhower's appeal for restoration of a tentatively approved 200-million-dollar cut in foreign aid. Speaker Sam Rayburn rescheduled the vote for Friday. The postponement was caused by the death in Chicago of Rep. James B. Bowler (D-Ill.). He was 82. The House adjourned as a gesture of respect.

Stockpiles: A special House consumer study subcommittee urged the President to plan immediately for emergency food stockpiles that would be needed in case of nuclear attack. A subcommittee report said the government is "utterly without plan" to feed civilian survivors of an attack against the United States and allied nations.

Maryland Beauty Named Miss United States In Miss Universe Contest

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Leona Gage, a black-haired Cinderella from Maryland who entered the Miss Universe contest with only $10 in her pocket, Wednesday night won the coveted title of Miss United States—in a borrowed dress.

The green-eyed, long-legged Miss Maryland drew cheers from the audience at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium when she accepted the pearl crown from last year's Miss U.S.A. and Miss Universe, Carol Morris of Iowa.

At 5 feet 9½ inches, Miss Gage was the tallest of the contestants for the Miss U.S.A. title. She measures 36-23-36 and weighs 118 pounds.

The 21-year-old Leona and her cousin, Barbara Gage, had taken the two-way plane ticket Leona received as Miss Maryland and converted it into two one-way tickets, figuring to work their way back home if she lost.

The girls arrived in this seaport with only $20 between them that they had saved from modeling jobs.

In Leona's suitcase was a $45 gown she had bought at a sale in Baltimore. She wore that the first night of the world-wide beauty pageant. Wednesday night she paraded down the runway in a gown borrowed from a small dress shop in Long Beach.

"I went into see if I could buy a dress with our $20 and the man loaned it to me—he knew I was broke," she said with an embarrassed smile.

But now riches have come at last to Leona. The prizes include $2,000 cash, a world-wide tour, a complete wardrobe, a house trailer, and she will represent the United States in the Miss World contest in Europe.

The runners-up in order of selection were Miss Utah, Charlotte Sheffield; Miss West Virginia, Ruth Marie Parr; Miss Nevada, Joan Adams, and Miss Nebraska, Carolyn McGirr.

Area Farmers May Now Apply for Emergency Loans at FHA Office

Farmers may now apply for emergency loans at local county offices of the Farmers Home Administration as a result of the designation of fifty counties in Illinois by Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson. This announcement was made by George H. Reuss, Champaign, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration, whose agency will be responsible for carrying out the program in the state.

Emergency loans are designed to supplement local credit, Reuss said, and may be made for operating expenses, subsistence and machinery replacement needed by farmers in the stricken areas, to carry on their normal farming operations. Loans usually are made for 12 to 18 months but may be for longer periods. The loans draw 3 percent interest.

"It is our intention to assist farmers in this area to the extent of our legislative and administrative authority," Reuss continued, "and farmers who have suffered loss as a result of the excessive rainfall or floods, may now apply for this credit from the local county supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration."

E. Ronald Coon, county supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration, said in Harrisburg today that Gallatin, Hamilton, Johnson, Saline and Williamson counties are among those designated. Mr. Coon has offices at Harrisburg in the Harrisburg National Bank Building and the office is open Monday through Friday. A representative of the Farmers Home Administration may also be contacted between 10 a. m. and 12 noon at contact offices on the following days: The ASC office, Ridgway, on the first and third Tuesday each month; the SCS office, McLeansboro, on the second and fourth Tuesday each month; the SCS office, Vienna, on the second and fourth Thursday each month; the SCS office, Marion, on the first and third Thursday each month.

Mr. Coon also stated the Farmers Home Administration makes operating loans under its regular program to assist farmers in their farming operations. These loans may be made for operating expenses, the purchase of livestock and equipment, and to refinance eligible debts. Loans of this type draw 5 per cent interest and may be made for periods up to 7 years.

Three Equality Young Men Hurt In Auto Mishap

Three Equality young men—Cecil Milligan Jr., Ronald Thompson and Perry Kingston—were injured in an automobile accident on Route 13, east of Harrisburg, about 10:30 p. m. Wednesday and brought to the Harrisburg hospital for treatment.

Their injuries apparently are not serious, but they are suffering from multiple abrasions and contusions. Hospital authorities stated this morning x-rays were being made to determine the full extent of the injuries but it was thought the patients were not seriously hurt.

The three were travelling east in a 1950 Ford driven by Terry Kingston at the time of the accident.

State Patrolman Guthrie Alexander stated the accident occurred when the driver, lost control of the automobile, after passing another car, near Middle Fork bridge.

Rain was falling at the time and the pavement was slick. The car turned almost completely around and began to slide backwards on the highway, crashing into the guard railing on the north side of the bridge. The car was badly damaged, particularly the rear end.

Kingston, the driver, was given a ticket for driving too fast for existing weather conditions.

Bodies Severely Mangled by TNT Grenade

Were Conducting Test Operations Off Long Island

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) — Three sailors were killed and eight others injured, four seriously, by a "king sized hand grenade" which misfired Wednesday night aboard the Navy escort vessel Somersworth.

The bodies of the dead were "severely mangled" by fragments from the 2 1/2-pound charge of TNT in the grenade which is used in underwater sound experiments, Capt. Walter Wellham, chief medical officer at the Navy base here, said.

The Somersworth was conducting "test operations" 100 miles off Montauk Point, eastern tip of Long Island, when the explosion occurred at 5:45 p. m. on the forecastle deck, the Navy said.

From first reports Navy investigators believe a time fuse on the charge may have been defective. A board of officers here is conducting an investigation of the accident, the Navy said.

Praise Pharmacist Mates

Wellham, said the flying steel fragments tore holes in the bodies of the dead. One arm was missing from one body, he said. He also said he had reports some of the four seriously injured were in poor condition.

The four seriously injured were taken off the Somersworth by the British liner Queen Mary and treated by the Cunard liner's medical officer before they were transferred to a Navy rescue ship.

A report from the Queen Mary's medical officer, Wellham said, praised highly the quick medical assistance given the wounded by two Navy pharmacist mates.

One, Corbett Radcliffe, of New Orleans, had escaped injury from the explosion by 10 seconds. He had just left the firing group when the blast occurred, Wellham said.

The Queen Mary's medical officers reported that Radcliffe and Chief Pharmacist Mate Clarence Williams, who boarded the Somersworth from the submarine Tigris, had given first aid which meant a difference between life and immediate death to the four injured.

They treated the injured for shock and administered blood plasma, the liner's doctor said. Then they treated the injured's wounds.

Identify Dead

The Navy said the charges such as the one which exploded were used in underwater work "investigating sound transmission."

The Queen Mary stood by for more than three hours after taking aboard the four injured seamen, and then continued her eastward Atlantic crossing when they were removed to the Navy rescue ship Sunbird.

The four were taken to the Newport, R. I., naval hospital aboard the Sunbird.

The dead were:

Anthony Focca, pipefitter 1C, Groton, Conn.

John R. Turley, quartermaster 1C, New London, Conn.

Francis P. Brophy, 18, seaman, Malden, Mass.

Critically injured were Norman C. Bradford, 19, seaman, Columbus, Ohio; Irwin Zelanko, 20, fireman Brooklyn, N. Y.; Marlin K. Fisher, 21, electronic technician 2C, New London, Conn., and Delbert Littlehale, a civilian employed at the underwater sound laboratory in Groton, Conn.

Hot Enough for You?

No one can run the social gantlet of a summer without a complete glossary of weather conversation. In fact, our society probably would crack at the seams if we had to do without the weather clichés.

For those who haven't mastered this social must, we present a typical conversation, sparkling with acute observations on the weather (which "everyone talks
about, but . . .").

"Hot enough for you?"

"Well, of course, it's not the heat, it's the humidity, you know."

"Looks like summer's really
here."

"We could use some rain. Hold down the dust, you know."

"It's good for the ducks, but that's about all."

"Helps the crops."

"Yeah, helps the crops."

"I can't ever remember it being so hot."

"Oh, used to be a lot hotter
years ago."

"Yeah?"

"Yeah."

"I don't think these H-bomb explosions help it any."

"They're not telling all they know about how it's changed the weather."

"They say if you drink something hot, it cools you off."

"That's what they say."

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Astute Southern Leaders Have
Won Large Part Of Civil Rights Battle; Liberal Democrats Unhappy At GOP Knowland's Leadership; Southerners Are Bitter At Nixon.

WASHINGTON. — One of the most skillful jobs of Senate maneuvers in years has been done
by Sen. Dick Russell of Georgia and Southern leaders in the civil rights debate. Even before this week's vote to take up the bill,
they had come close to arranging private deals by which they should win about 90 per cent of their points.

Southern leaders still have two opponents: Vice President Nixon
on one side, and an embattled group of northern liberals led by Sen. Paul Douglas of Illinois on the other.

Nixon, who sees the huge bloc of Negro votes almost within Republican grasp, is determined that there be no throw-away on civil rights. As a result, he has aroused the undying enmity of southern senators. They say privately that they can get along with Nixon's fellow Californian,
Bill Knowland. Only last January Knowland voted with them on the ending of filibusters, and they expect him to compromise
now.

But Nixon is tougher. The bitterness against him is intense.

Irony is that the liberal Democrats, including Douglas, Mc-Namara of Michigan, Clark of Pennsylvania, Pastore of Rhode Island, Neuberger of Oregon, now find themselves led by a man they have always opposed, Senator
Knowland. Or if he compromises, then they may have to go over to Nixon, a man they have opposed even more. For years they fought for civil rights when the going was really tough. Now they find the play taken away from them, by GOP johnnies-come-lately.

Meanwhile, here are the shrewd moves made by southern leaders to strip the civil rights bill down to a skeleton even before the real debate got started.

1. Jury Trial — Sen. Lyndon
Johnson of Texas has a jury-trial amendment just about tied up in blue ribbons. A good many Republicans and several northern Democrats are secretly ready to vote out trial-by-judge in case a judge's injunction is violated, and substitute trial-by-jury — in many cases trial-by-white-jury.

2. Other Civil Rights—This is Section 3 of the bill which embraces all civil rights, not merely voting rights, and would include the enforcement of school desegregation.

President Eisenhower and Georgia's Dick Russell have now cut a lot of support from this part of the bill. After Dick told the Senate this would permit the federal government to force segregation on the South with bayonets, the President announced that he didn't "participate in drawing up the exact language of the proposals" and that his only objective was "to prevent anybody illegally from interfering with any individual's right to vote."

Eisenhower obviously wasn't familiar with his own power as President, nor hadn't read the civil rights bill which has been under consideration in Congress for two years and under active debate for nine months. He didn't know among other things, that as President he has always the right to send troops into any part of the United States, and that in this half century other presidents have sent them into portions of the South.

Ike's confusion about the "exact language" of the bill has holstered Russell's charge that the bill is "an example of cunning draughtsmanship" and has helped another proposed compromise.
Many northern leaders now agree that the bill should not pass unless it makes clear that military power will not be used to enforce civil rights.

3. Voting Rights Only — Southern leaders also want the language of the civil rights bill confined strictly and solely to the protection of voting rights, and they have lined up enough backstage votes among Republicans so that this compromise may pass too.
GOP Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota was picked by southern leaders to spearhead this compromise.

All this happened before the civil rights bill itself came up for debate.

Oregon's Sen. Wayne Morse is planning a bill to make the Commissioner of Internal Revenue completely non-political, serving a 15-year term. Morse says Internal Revenue has been in politics unto the armits. He suspects it has been threatening Negro Congressman Adam Clayton Powell with tax prosecution to make him side against Hell's Canyon. (Powell's three secretaries have been either convicted or indicted on kickback charges.) . . . Many members of the American Bar Association are skeptical about the tax deductions to be charged by their colleagues for expenses of their trip to London. By attending the London meeting of the Bar Association, many members intend to charge off their trans-Atlantic traveling expenses as business expense. Then they can take a further vacation in Europe for almost nothing. Big question mark with some lawyers is how the Treasury will rule on this later
. . . Attorney General Brownell has already gone to London . . .
It was just one year ago that Governor Knight of California was doing his best to block the nomination of Dick Nixon for Vice President. Now they're teammates in efforts to block the nomination of Sen. Bill Knowland. Politics make strange bedfellows.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

If you're sweating it out in the heat of Washington, you may be jealous of the plight of 14 Army officers, 18 scientists, and their secretaries. They have gone to Damariscotta, Maine, for two months to study the effects of atomic war—at the expense of the taxpayer. They are attending sessions at Lincoln Academy in Newcastle, Maine, on the cool Atlantic coast. The project is lasting from July 1 to August 31, just in time to come back to a cooler
Washington. . . . Gen. Tony Mc-Auliffe, the heroic officer who said "nuts!" to the Germans at the Battle of the Bulge, surrendered to the Army brass in testifying before Congress the other day.
He was supposed to testify strongly for an Army airlift. But when his old comrade Gen. Maxwell Taylor, testified against it, Tony now retired, was a good soldier, stuck with the Army brass. . . .
Later McAuliffe wrote to Ralph Cox, small air-line executive who asked him to testify: "While I do not agree with the views expressed by Gen. Taylor, I still consider it unwise and futile to attempt to contradict him on the basis of my

Announce Marriage of Miss Linda Browning to The Rev. Robert H. Edwards

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert H. Edwards (Ronnie's Studio Photo)

Rev. and Mrs. Robert H. Edwards, who were married June 9 at the First Methodist church in Benton, are now making their home in Maryland where he is associate pastor of the Cecil United Parish.

Rev. Edwards is the former pastor of the Orient and Bethel Methodist churches and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Edwards, Galatia.

The bride, the former Miss Linda Browning, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Browning of Orient.

The Rev. Maurice Winn, Harrisburg district superintendent of the Methodist church, was assisted by the Rev. Robert Simpson, pastor of the Benton church, in an impressive afternoon service. The service was performed before an altar blanketed with white gladioli and lighted by white candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white Chantilly lace-over-satin gown featuring a sweetheart neckline and chapel length train. Her fingertip illusion veil was secured with a tiara of seed pearls, and her bouquet of stephanotis was centered with a white orchid.

Miss Rosemary Iacometti of Orient sang "Because" and "Till the End of Time," and Mrs. George Leuchtefeld sang "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Nita Billingsly, church organist, presided at the organ.

Mrs. Janice Essick, Kankakee matron of honor, wore a pink and white bouffant dress and carried a fan of blue carnations. Miss Nora Smith, West Frankfort, wore blue and white and carried a fan of pink carnations.

Karen Smith, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her ruffled white dress was complemented with a pink wrist corsage.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom chose blue dresses with white accessories for the wedding.

The best man was Bill Fester of Centralia, and the groomsman was Phil Gardner of Mt. Vernon.

Misses Nancy Sankus, Judy Richerson, Judy Ezell, and Beverly Ligon presided over the refreshment table at a reception in the church, following the wedding. Miss Donna Montredini registered the guests.

The bride is a graduate of Frankfort Community high school. Rev. Edwards is a graduate of McKendree college and will continue his studies at Temple University, School of Theology, in Philadelphia.

Husbands Guests For Ice Cream Social

The Fidelis Sunday school class of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church met in the church dining hall Tuesday evening, for an ice cream social and regular meeting. The husbands were guests.

The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Betty Pool. The opening prayer was led by Wilma Reed, followed by the reading of the minutes and roll call. Mrs. Ernestine Brinkley gave an interesting devotion from the 6th chapter of Psalms.

Games were played and refreshments of homemade ice cream and cake were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Darroll Crabb, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Pool, Mrs. Wanda Milligan and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Boren, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Reed, Mrs. Joan McNew, Mrs. Mary Lee Cooley and Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Hedger and Mark, Mrs. Ernestine Brinkley, teacher, and the following guests: Mrs. Roy Chamberlain, Lynda Dunn, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Penrod and family.

Henry Gideumb spent the early hours of Tuesday in the Marion depot waiting for his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Pellico, and his daughter-in-law Mrs. Eugene Gideumb and the children, to arrive from the San Fernando valley in California. The train, due to arrive at 12:30 a. m., didn't get in until almost 3 a. m. Henry is on vacation this week so losing a little sleep is just a part of the fun of having the children at home.

THE ORACLES OF GOD

I PET. 4:11

Church of Christ

Charles Wall Minister

"JESUS IS THE WAY"

JNO. 14:6

Our Lord clarifies in Jno. 14:6, that there is only one way to be saved. It is to be done through Christ and not man. Too many people think they can be saved by believing most anything. But they will certainly be disappointed when we all stand before the Judgement bar of God. Jesus has told us the things he expects of us in order to become a Christian and he also tells us what we must continue to do in order to remain faithful.

There are more ways to become a Christian in the world than our Lord has authorized. He said, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life, no one cometh unto the Father, but by me." It is only through the will of our Lord that we can be saved. If we go by any creeds or manuals, then we are not following the ONE way. The word of God gives us everything we need in order to inherit eternal life.

Are you following Christ? If you are following something that Christ did not authorize then you are not in THE way. We will be lost IF we are not using the word as a map. It will lead us from this world of sin and sorrow to that home of the soul.

No Gov't Plans to Immediately Lower FHA Down Payments

WASHINGTON —Administration sources said today the government will not immediately lower down payments on federal-backed home loans despite new authority to do so.

Cadet Boyett was graduated from Harrisburg Township High School in 1953 and is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers at the college. He was employed by the Illinois Highway Division, Carbondale.

Saline County Social Security Payments Over $135,000 Monthly

A total of 2,851 persons in Saline county were getting social security insurance payments totaling $135,314 per month at the end of 1956. E. Bishop Hill, Social Security Administration district manager in Harrisburg, declared today.

At the end of 1956, monthly benefit payments were going to 592 wives or aged dependent husbands of old-age beneficiaries and to 308 aged widows or dependent aged widowers in Saline county. The 12-month increase in aged beneficiaries is due partly to the lowering from 65 to 62 of the age at which a woman without an entitled child in her care may qualify for benefits, Mr. Hill said. The lowering of the retirement age for women was one of the provisions of the 1956 amendments to the Social Security Act and became effective last November. It applies to retired women workers, wives of old-age beneficiaries, and widows or dependent mothers of deceased insured workers. Many women who would have had to wait up to three years longer before starting to get benefits under the old law became entitled to benefits in the last two months of 1956.

More Becoming Eligible

Noting that OASI coverage has taken hold rapidly in recent years, Mr. Hill pointed out that three-fourths of the men becoming 65 this year will be eligible for social security benefits. Of all people over 65 years of age, 62 percent are now drawing benefits or will be entitled to draw them when their income from work stops. In Saline county 1,470 retired workers were receiving $85,488 in monthly payments at the close of 1956.

In December 1956, 381 children in Saline county were being paid a total of $13,603 monthly. These were largely minor children of a deceased insured parent; a smaller number were children under 18 whose insured father or mother had retired. All of these were unmarried children under 18. While child's benefits ordinarily stop at age 18, Mr. Hill called attention to a recent change in the law which makes payments possible for a child over 18, based on the insured account of a retired or deceased parent, if the child became totally disabled before reaching 18. Payments will be made also to the mother who has the disabled child in her care. This provision did not become effective until January, 1957; consequently, disabled child

LACK OF FUNDS FAILS TO HINDER WEDDING PLANS

SHAWNEETOWN, July 19 —A young Juliet couple, determined to bow to cupid's call Saturday afternoon, found that lack of funds is not too big an obstacle—especially when others who have recently entered into wedlock knew of the plight.

Gordon Cooper, 21, and Mary Nussbaum, 18, had traveled as far as Morganfield, Ky., by bus which used up quite a bit of their meagre funds. They realized that taxi fare to Shawneetown was out of the question because they still needed most of the remaining funds for the return trip to Joliet.

The youngsters, therefore, started out hitchhiking. A few minutes later, however, they were picked up by Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Toombs of Morganfield, who on April 2 had been married at Shawneetown. When the Toombs' learned that the youngsters were in financial trouble, they drove them all the way to the country home of County Clerk and Mrs. Yules Wren where they obtained their license. Following the ceremony they returned them to Morganfield where they were soon on their way home, happily married, and thankful to a young man and woman who realized that a boost in a time such as this was greatly appreciated.

If the child of a retired or deceased person is entitled to monthly payments, the child's mother may also be entitled to benefits, regardless of her age. In Saline county at the end of 1956, 92 widowed mothers who were caring for child beneficiaries were receiving $4,173 per month.

55.5 Million Covered

Noting the impact of farm coverage in general on essentially agricultural areas, Mr. Hill said that a farm employee, for instance, who was already at retirement age by mid-1956 became insured as of April 1 of that year if he had taxable wages of $400 or more in 1955 and of at least $200 in 1956. Benefits paid to farmers and their dependents, moreover, figured in the nationwide totals for 1956. At the close of the year, over 9 million people were receiving almost one-half billion dollars in monthly benefit payments.

Commenting on the growth of the social security insurance in the 20 years of its operation, Mr. Hill recalled that the original law covered about 26 million workers; as of March 1957, approximately 55.5 million people were in work covered by the law, and more than 9 out of every 10 persons who work for a living and 9 out of 10 mothers and children have a stake in the social security insurance program.

Woman is Asked For Advice—She Gives It

SIoux CITY, Iowa —Would Mrs. Betty Foxen, a housewife, be so kind as to give her impressions of modern advertising methods? The Des Moines Advertising Club asked.

Yes, she would, said Mrs. Foxen. Then the fun flew. Mrs. Foxen, mother of three children, told the group of advertisers that "sweeping and implausible" claims for products built up customer resentment.

Moreover, she said, she and her friends were sick and tired of television commercials which "shouted at them," used "offensive words" or paraded a woman "who looked like she just got out of a beauty parlor."

Not through with her audience, Mrs. Foxen also complained about commercials which told children to "ask mother" to go out and buy such-and-such a product.

"Why don't you 'ask mother' yourselves?" she demanded.

What, then, was the way to the shopper's heart?

"Cartoon" commercials and "down-to-earth" announcers, she said.

Mrs. Foxen's husband is a salesman.

Snead Leads 64 Survivors in PGA Title Race

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Sammy Snead, shooting one of his finest rounds, led 64 survivors into two sudden-death 18-hole rounds in the PGA golf championship today with all the top favorites still in the running.

Doug Ford, the favorite; Walter Burkemo, one of the greatest match players in the game; defending champion Jackie Burke; U. S. Open King Dick Mayer and most of the other "name" golfers still were in the running along with Snead, who is gunning for his fourth PGA championship.

Three ex-champs fell by the wayside in the opening 18-hole round of match play Wednesday. Former champions Chick Harbert,

L'I ABNER

Chandler Harper and Jim Turnesa were eliminated along with Ed Furgol, the 1954 U. S. Open champion.

Snead Calls Penalty
Snead, despite calling a penalty on himself which cost him the 11th hole, defeated John Serafin of Pittston, Pa., 4 and 2, as he overpowered the hilly, 6,773-yard Miami Valley Golf Club. He was six under par for the 16 holes it took him to close out the match.

That was the best golf of a day which produced 10 extra hole matches of the 64 that were played. In another brilliant exhibition, Gene Littler, who is in the tournament on a pass, bested Don Fairfield in a battle of birdies.

Cancer Society Expert Links Cigaretts to Lung, Other Diseases

WASHINGTON (UP) — An American Cancer Society expert told congressional investigators today that cigarette smoking is a cause of lung cancer and has a "severe effect" on a number of other diseases.

Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond, the society's research director, said "evidence that smoking is a serious health hazard has been accumulating slowly since about 1915."

He said recent studies have produced "overwhelming" evidence that cigarette smoking "is a causative factor of great importance in the occurrence of lung cancer."

He said there has been an "alarming trend in the death rates from lung cancer," with the number of deaths rising from 2,500 in 1930 to an estimated 29,000 in 1956.

Hammond said cigarette smoking "causes a increase" in deaths from heart disease and has a "severe effect" on patients with peptic ulcers and Buerger's disease.

He also said there is evidence that smoking has an effect on death rates from respiratory diseases other than lung cancer.

Hammond was the opening witness at a House Government Operations subcommittee investigation of filter cigarettes.

Dr. Clarence Cook Little, chairman of the scientific advisory board to the tobacco industry's research committee, challenged the claims of a cause-and-effect relation between smoking and lung cancer.

In prepared testimony, Little said: "Non-smokers get lung cancer. The vast majority of heavy smokers never get lung cancer. Obviously there is no simple cause-and-effect mechanism resulting from cigarette smoking."

Little said that the per capita consumption of tobacco in England is much less than in the United States but that the incidence of lung cancer in England is much greater.

He said the "basic origins" of cancer are still unknown.

Preliminary Lie Test Reveals Slaying May Be Linked to Marilyn Sheppard Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UP) — The court of last resort advised Gov. C. William O'Neill today that a preliminary lie detector test showed that Joseph Wedler told the truth in a Florida prison when he said he may have killed Marilyn Sheppard.

Wedler, an escapee from a Florida prison road gang, told authorities in De Land, Fla., he killed a woman in the Cleveland area on July 4, 1954, the night Mrs. Sheppard was killed. He did not mention Mrs. Sheppard by name in the statement he gave to Florida authorities.

The Ohio governor said he had received a telegram from Earle Stanley Gardner, a writer of mystery stories, who conducts the court of last resort for a magazine.

The text of the telegram received by O'Neill:

Graham Plans New Crusades

NEW YORK (UP) — Evangelist Billy Graham said today he hopes to conduct crusades for Christ in Sydney, Australia and Birmingham, England, in 1959.

Graham revealed tentative plans for the new crusades as he prepared for the biggest revival meeting of his career, to be held in the 67,000-seat Yankee Stadium Saturday. Vice President Richard M. Nixon confirmed in Washington late Wednesday an earlier United Press report he would come to New York to take part in the stadium rally.

Graham said he would "give much prayer" to tentative plans to hold the Australian crusade in March, April and May of 1959. The crusade would have offshoots from Sydney into Melbourne and three other major cities, as well as Auckland, New Zealand.

The projected Birmingham crusade which would cover the entire "Midlands" section of Great Britain is tentatively planned for September, 1959.

Parolee Demands Readmittance to Menard Penitentiary

CHESTER, Ill. (UP) — A prison parolee, fed up with reporting his comings and goings to a parole officer, relaxed in county jail today while authorities decided whether to allow him back in state prison.

The parolee, Jack Douglas, 32, appeared at the gates of the state penitentiary Wednesday demanding readmittance.

"I'm getting tired of people telling me what I can and can't do," he said. "I want back in prison to finish my parole."

He still has 44 days to serve out his term.

Shoulder's Son Held in Burglary Attempt in Indiana

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (UP) — Louis D. Shoulders Jr., 29, son of a former St. Louis police lieutenant imprisoned in the Greenlease kidnap case, was held today for investigation into an attempted burglary.

Shoulders, held on a technical charge of loitering, was arrested by police in a field Wednesday following the pursuit of a man who jumped from the roof of a supermarket.

Shoulders' father served a prison term on perjury charges involving $300,000 in missing ransom money in the kidnap-slaying of Bobby Greenlease several years ago.

Young Shoulders denied any part in the robbery attempt, but said he was under $25,000 bond to Madison County, Ill. He was indicted in 1953 in connection with the slaying of an East St. Louis, Ill., cab driver, Bobbie Carr.

Two Babies Survive While Mothers are Fatally Injured

By United Press
Two babies being held in arms by their mother, survived by seeming miracles when death struck the women, one from a lightning bolt in Florida and the other from an automobile in Mississippi.

One child was thrown unhurt upon the top of a car that fatally injured his mother Wednesday at New Albany, Miss. and the other child was left unscathed when lightning instantly killed his mother.

Mrs. G. C. Wilhite, 23, of New Albany, was carrying her 6-month-old boy in her arms along a country road when she was struck by the car. She died in a hospital four hours later.

Mrs. Harvey King, 25, of Dade City, Fla., picked up her son Ronald, and walked into her yard to inspect an oak tree that had just been struck by lightning two days ago. A second bolt struck the tree, killing Mrs. King.

The child fell to the ground beside the mother's body, without receiving the slightest injury from the bolt.

Army to Trim Its Draft Calls

WASHINGTON (UP) — Informed sources said today the Army expects to make a second 50,000-man cut in its strength possibly by next June.

The new cut plus the 50,000-man cut ordered this week would reduce the Army to 900,000 men—the same strength as the Air Force will have at that time.

The Army announced Wednesday night that it will trim its monthly draft calls as a result of the first 50,000-man cut. It said it could not say at this time how much the draft calls will be reduced.

Husband of Former Local Woman is Fatally Injured

C. W. Wilkinson, 72, husband of the former Lillie Bowers of Harrisburg, was killed instantly Sunday, July 13, when he walked into the path of a southbound Illinois Central passenger train in Arcola.

Mrs. Wilkinson has three sisters living in the Harrisburg area, Mrs. Mary Butler and Mrs. Harvey Deaton, Harrisburg, and Mrs. J. B. Deaton, Carrier Mills. Mrs. Walter Johnson of Evansville, Ind., is her sister also, and they are children of the late Rev. and Mrs. John L. Logsdon of Harrisburg. Many relatives of the Logsdon family still live in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson were married in 1952 and Mrs. Wilkinson moved to Arcola in November of that year, where Mr. Wilkinson had been a farmer all of his life until his retirement.

The funeral was held at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Shrader funeral home in Arcola. Rev. Owen Stuart officiated and burial was in the Arcola cemetery.

The coroner's inquest determined that the death was accidental and witnesses said that Mr. Wilkinson was "hard of hearing," did not see or hear the train traveling at about 90 miles an hour, until it was too close for him to get out of its path.

Mrs. Wilkinson is visiting with her sisters in Harrisburg for a few days before returning to her home in Arcola.

GENERAL TELEPHONE COMPANY IS MAKING CHANGES!

Moving day is in the offing for your Telephone Company and there are many changes being made as the work of converting to dial operation progresses.

You — the customer — will be affected by some of these changes! For the few weeks before your new dial service is in operation we ask that you supply your frequent callers with your new telephone number since we find it necessary to discontinue intercepting calls for changed numbers.

There will be no change in the handling of information calls — all requests for customers' numbers will be supplied in the usual manner. We have, however, prepared a special supplemental directory which lists many number changes made during the conversion period. This directory which will reach you within a few days, lists changes made prior to June 12, 1957.

We will appreciate your co-operation in working with us during this change over period.

Giardello Wins Decision Over Chico Vejar

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The managers of middleweights Joey Giardello and Chico Vejar considered a return September match today because of Wednesday night's excellent fight at Exposition Center in which Giardello won a unanimous decision.

It extended Giardello's unbeaten string to 11 straight.

Unranked Vejar, the 4-1 underdog, provided such unexpectedly stiff competition in the nationally televised 10-rounder that many of the 4,500 fans thought he had won.

Chico of Stamford, Conn., said today, "I thought I won unquestionably. I out-speeded him in every round. I'll prove it in a return bout."

Cardinals Regain Lead in Close National L. Race with 7-3 Victory Over Dodgers

By United Press

The National League race resembled a crowded telephone booth today with four other clubs waiting around impatiently to put in a pennant call as soon as they can get the first-place Cardinals off the line.

St. Louis just managed to sneak into the lead by one percentage point with a 7-3 victory over Brooklyn Wednesday night.

But the Cards know they are being pressed and that their time may run out any moment.

Milwaukee is first in line, only one percentage point away from the lead. Philadelphia is in third place, only a half-game back, while Brooklyn is 1 1/2 games off the pace and Cincinnati only two.

"This thing is so tight right now," commented Redleg manager Birdie Tebbetts, "that three clubs can change places between lunchtime and dinner."

To prove Tebbetts' point, the Braves dumped the Phillies from first place to third by beating them, 10-3, Wednesday night. Cincinnati edged the Giants, 5-4, and the Cubs defeated the Pirates, 4-3, in their own private battle for seventh place.

Yanks Hold Edge

The Yankees regained their 4-game lead in the American League with a 5-1 decision over Detroit, Washington snapped Cleveland's five-game winning streak, 11-6; Chicago beat Baltimore, 3-1, and Kansas City went 12 innings to top Boston, 4-3.

In beating Brooklyn, the Cardinals ended Don Newcombe's six-year mastery over them by defeating him for the first time since Aug. 23, 1951. He had beaten them 12 times since then. They chased him with a four-run rally in the fourth inning that included a two-run homer by Wally Moon. Del Ennis also homered for the Cards as Sam Jones struck out 12 batters in registering his eighth victory.

Milwaukee's victory over the Phillies was marked by a first-inning rhabarb in which Philadelphia starter Robin Roberts had to be restrained from attacking umpire Jocko Conlan. The fireworks started over a double play call that went against the Phils. Hank Aaron and Red Schoendienst each collected three hits in Milwaukee's 13-hit attack. Roberts was ejected in the first inning and his successor, Jack Meyer, was the loser. Lew Burdette was the winner.

George Crowe hit a pair of homers and drove in four runs in Cincinnati's triumph over the Giants. Brooks Lawrence notched his 10th victory although he gave way to Raul Sanchez in the eighth. Curt Barclay was the loser.

Ernie Banks' squeeze bunt with two out in the seventh inning brought in Bob Speake with the Cubs' winning run. Moe Drabowski had to have help from Dick Littlefield for his fifth win while Ronnie Kline suffered his 13th setback.

The McDaniel Boys

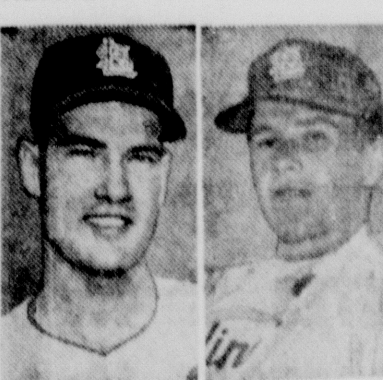

Lindy Won't Give Batters the Brush-Off, But Batters Better Inspect Von Closely

By JIMMY BRESLIN

NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Fred Hutchinson had just gotten up and he had on a T-shirt and pair of slacks and was padding around his hotel suite in bare feet, groping for the first cigarette of the day, and talking about how it is to manage a team that has two pitchers like Lindy and Von McDaniel.

"They're religious boys," the manager of the St. Louis Cardinals began. "The older one, Lindy, he's studying theology. So I watch how I talk during ordinary conversation . . . I don't know about the rest of the fellows, but I'm the manager, so I do it that way.

"Then something happens during a game and I jump up and yell something like — — — and so does everybody else and you don't really know you're saying anything. Lindy, I notice he just sits there quietly and doesn't notice anything. But he's been around a bit now.

"Von is only with us six weeks and it's all new to him. He's only 18. He's never heard any ballplayers' language before, most of it, anyhow, so he looks down at us and gets a kick out of it.

"I have trouble getting Lindy to pitch a little tougher," Hutchinson got up, picked a magazine off the coffee table, rolled it up and took a batting pose in the middle of the room.

"Lindy is a low ball pitcher," he said, "down around here and outside a bit." He bent over and ran his hand back and forth across his knees. "So a batter gets in here against him and starts coming down and leaning over so he can get at those pitches.

"I tell Lindy to make 'em get back." He ran his hand across his ear quickly. "I don't mean to throw it here. I mean just put it inside and high. Around here." He moved his hand across his chest.

"That would back the hitter away, straighten him up. He wouldn't be bent over, laying for those low pitches. But the kid won't do it.

"Von is different. I think I haven't talked to him about it, but I think he'd do it. He'll do anything to be a real good pitcher.

"So the next time he gets up, down he goes. The pitcher was just protecting his interest. But the umpire steps up and starts yelling. 'One more of those and you're out of the game!' So two pitches later Cunningham doubles. He killed the Reds the whole series. Hit a liner back to the box that hurt Herschel Freeman's foot.

"Cunningham knows the score. Nobody was going to stand there and let him knock his brains out. That's the way this game is. But I can't get Lindy to do it that way.

"Walker Cooper has been around this club a long time and he says he hasn't seen pitchers as good as these kids break in since guys like Ernie White and Johnny Beasley. That was back in the early 40's and they were as good as you find.

"Both these kids are going to be real good pitchers. I thought we'd win at the start of the year and that was without figuring on them so much. Now I know we're the real solid club."

Downstairs, in the coffee shop, Lindy and Von McDaniel sat in crew cuts and sports jackets, having breakfast. Von doesn't even drink coffee. He has cocoa in the morning, a milk shake at night.

But Fred Hutchinson believes he is tough enough to keep hitters from taking a toehold. Even if Lindy, who is 21 and the leader, doesn't want to play that way.

Nan now was sitting very still in the corner of the boat seat; her head was down so that Garde looked at the top of her shiny black head, the crescents made by her dark eyebrows and by her eyelashes, her straight nose, her pretty mouth. Her hands were busy with the matter of creasing the cloth of her shorts. But he knew that her stillness concealed raw, burning hurt.

"Valley stayed on, of course. She sent for some clothes and bought some—and she and Kurt . . .

"Finally a night came when I saw them down on the pier together; his arms were around her, and her head was back—and they kissed." She coughed, and took a deep breath, and went on.

"Kurt had brought me home, and—well suppose he met Valley down on the pier by previous arrangement."

"Did they know you'd seen them?" Garde had to exert effort to keep his tone calm.

"Oh, no. I didn't go too close—as I say, it was moonlight, and with the riding lights—well, I watched them for only a minute. And then I went up the hill again—you know—through the yards."

For a time they cruised along, the breeze, the sun, the river exerting each its own balm. Garde debated whether the discussion should be continued.

Then, "Did Kurt ever say anything to you? About Valley?"

She shook her head. "Not one word, Garde. I knew he was seeing her, and yet, with me, he was just as he had been before she came. He called me each day, he took me places—he was kind to me and attentive. But, still, certain things were different. We didn't go on making definite plans for our marriage. Just before Valley came, we'd begun to look at house plans; we were going to build our own home at the edge of the Lillard grounds. But after she came, we didn't do anything more about that."

A noisy, sputtering outboard bore down upon them and passed with a waving of hands and shouted greetings.

"I believe," Nan resumed, "that it shocked Valley to know that she still loved Kurt, that a man could exert such a hold upon her. Through all those years—and I believe we both realized this—it had been Kurt's fault that Valley had never married."

Again he nodded in agreement.

"There was the usual big dance at the club on Saturday night. It's always a big thing; we get in a good band; the women dress up; we have guests—generally house guests of the members. That night Valley wore white—and she looked radiant. She'd sent for some of her clothes and she offered to let me wear one of her dresses. I remember that I wasn't very nice about the way I said 'No.' I spoke brusquely to her when she insisted—because I was hurt, I suppose. But anyway, I just wore my old red, which I'd worn so often before that it was familiar to the least observant."

"So—well, you know how it is here, Garde. Until you came, our crowd didn't offer anything in the way of an extra man. They were all married or going steady with some girl—and I didn't have much choice."

"I asked Ben to go with us to the dance, knowing that Kurt wouldn't like it, and he didn't. You see, he really had had trouble with Ben some years before. They talked about that so much at the trial! Kurt hated any mention of it, he'd have gladly forgotten the whole thing."

"Dr. Tom was—well, of course you didn't know him before his stroke. Most people loved him dearly, and I did myself. But I've gotten angry with him a time or two for telling me things. Oh, once, that I had too bright lipstick on when I sang in the choir. He liked everything to be just so, all proper and dignified! And I suppose he could have taken steps to stop Ben's yelling at Kurt on the street. . ."

blackmail, Garde!" She leaned toward him to express her earnestness.

"But, Nan," he insisted, "if the old man was buying that boy off, it was a matter of blackmail!"

"Well, of course—I don't know if he did any more than tell Ben to let Kurt alone. I remember he bragged to me about having something on Doc Lillard. He wanted me to ask him questions about it and I wouldn't. He had a way of suggesting unpleasant things that I didn't like to know about, so whenever he got on that line, I just wouldn't let the conversation continue. I didn't even ask him which Doc Lillard he meant. . .

"Maybe I should have asked him."

She looked questioningly at Garde, who nodded.

"Well, anyway," said Nan, abandoning the futile effort to explain why the dead boy had done the things he did, "that night at the dance, Valley was not at all nice to Ben, nor was Kurt. There's no doubt of that!"

"So," said Garde, "that's one of the things we know."

"Mmmmm." She looked out again at the view they had of the river and the sky. "So, maybe to

Johnson Admits Killing Wife; Tries To Suicide in Jail

Charles Johnson, who called his mother, Mrs. Vada Johnson, in McLeansboro Tuesday from San Diego, Calif., and told her his wife was dead in their apartment, has confessed to murdering his wife, according to San Diego officers.

The mother, after receiving the death telephone call from her son, called back to the San Diego police, relaying the message.

Charles was held on suspicion of murder when the coroner reported the dead woman died from a skull fracture and that her head was punctured in several places.

It is reported the Johnsons had engaged in a heated argument, ending with Charles beating his wife's head against shower handles and then putting the body in a filled bathtub.

The Johnsons had lived in Metropolis and Evansville before moving to California.

Surviving are the mother, Mrs. Clara Pursley of Lewisburg, Ky., four sisters and three brothers.

The body will be returned to Lewisburg for funeral and burial. Charles Johnson was placed in a psychiatric ward of a hospital after attempting suicide in jail. He will be given a preliminary hearing in San Diego to determine if there is sufficient evidence to warrant binding him over to Superior Court.

Vote Saturday at Mitchellville on Building New Unit School Building

Voters Will Decide On Location, and $120,000 Bonds

Patrons of Independence Community Consolidated School District 53 will go to the polls Saturday, July 20, and vote on the location and construction of a new school building.

More than a year ago the patrons of nine districts—South Walnut Grove, North Walnut Grove, Pierson, Rudement, Spring Valley, Taylor, Winkelman, Duncan and Mitchellville — gave overwhelming approval to consolidate and formed Independence Community Consolidated School District 53.

J. P. Hilliard was the first president of the board of education and Frank Gidcomb now heads the board. Other members are Kenneth Barnes, Robert DeNeal, Roy Wise, Toby Lane, Willard Perkins and Mr. Hilliard.

In a letter to the patrons of the district Mr. Gidcomb and other members of the board of education state they believe the best location for the new building is just south and a little east of the present Mitchellville grade school and the ground is already under option from Ray Williams and Lester Horton. The site is centrally located and will cut to a minimum the number of school bus miles necessary to transport the pupils to school, it is said.

The new school building will be of the very latest design. It will contain either six or eight classrooms plus an all-purpose room to be used as a cafeteria, for vocational education and for community gatherings. It will be modern in every sense of the word completely equipped and the new lighting design.

The letter continues by explaining the architect has estimated the cost of the building a $110,000, but voters will be asked to approve a $120,000 bond issue. But patrons are assured that no more bonds will be issued than just enough to cover the cost of construction.

The letter concludes — "Your school board believes that this is a sound program to meet our present and future needs and to meet State requirements. We urge you to go to the polls Saturday and vote. Vote as you choose, but vote."

If the proposed building program is approved it is believed the new consolidated district will be the first in Saline county to complete its building requirements.

Voting will be at the Mitchellville grade school, Saturday, July 20, with the polls open from 12 noon to 7 p. m.

Varied Program Completed for Saline County Fair to Open July 27

A varied program, designed to provide something of interest to all people of this area, has been completed for the Saline County Fair, which opens at the Harrisburg fair grounds Saturday, July 27.

Saturday will be entry day, and all entries in livestock and at the floral hall will have been judged by Sunday afternoon, the first day of regular entertainment.

The Tivoli carnival and shows will be on the grounds by Sunday afternoon.

Sunday afternoon the first thrill show of the week—big car races, will be presented. In the evening,

Changes in Rules For Entries at Saline County Fair

Changes in the rules for making entries at the Saline County Fair have been announced by fair officials, with the announcement the rules have been changed as a convenience to patrons of the Saline County Fair.

In past years all entries were accepted on the opening day of the fair, making for crowded conditions and resulting in the floral hall being closed to the public during the first day.

This year agricultural, textile and fine arts exhibits will be accepted on Saturday, July 27, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

1,500 Evacuated From Red Bud Homes Because of Fumes

RED BUD, Ill. (AP) — Escaping hydrous ammonia fumes from an auxiliary tank forced some 1,500 of the 2,000 residents of Red Bud to flee their homes today.

Mayor Elmer Schuchman, who ordered the evacuation, said several persons were made ill. However, there were no reports of serious injury.

Schuchman said homes painted white would probably turn brown or black within the next few days, depending on their nearness to the leaking tank at the Claude Simpson plant.

He also said the fumes, which cling close to the ground, were expected to kill plants and shrubbery.

The letter continues by explaining the architect has estimated the cost of the building a $110,000, but voters will be asked to approve a $120,000 bond issue. But patrons are assured that no more bonds will be issued than just enough to cover the cost of construction.

The letter concludes — "Your school board believes that this is a sound program to meet our present and future needs and to meet State requirements. We urge you to go to the polls Saturday and vote. Vote as you choose, but vote."

If the proposed building program is approved it is believed the new consolidated district will be the first in Saline county to complete its building requirements.

Voting will be at the Mitchellville grade school, Saturday, July 20, with the polls open from 12 noon to 7 p. m.

Girl Plunges To Her Death

NEW YORK (AP) — The 24-year-old daughter of a Milwaukee industrialist and former Republican national committeeman plunged to her death Wednesday from a 28th floor penthouse apartment of a Park Ave. hotel.

She was identified by police as Patricia Philipp, the daughter of Cyrus L. Philipp and granddaughter of former Wisconsin Governor Emanuel Philipp.

In her pocketbook, police found an unaddressed note reading: "Dear Hon. This is the only way out. You are not to blame."

Police were unable to determine to whom the note was addressed, or the reason for the leap. Co-workers at the Allied Public Relations Associations, where Miss Philipp had been a secretary the last two months, could offer no reason for the apparent suicide.

Pat Kelly and his Shamrocks feature a "rock'n' roll" revue, and in addition the recording unit of The Casuals will be on the stage.

Monday night, July 29, a "Grand Ole Opry" show from Nashville will be featured. Included will be the Country Boys, Judy Lynn, Johnny and Jack, Kitty Wells, Tennessee Mountain Boys and others.

Tuesday night will feature the annual Saline county beauty contest, sponsored by the Harrisburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, an attraction that has been a favorite of the fair goers for several years.

Wednesday night Jack Kochman and his auto daredevils will present another thrill show on the track in front of the grandstand.

A Western horse show will furnish the special attraction for Thursday night, and the fair will close Friday night with a full evening of society horse show.

First Run by Fire Department Since June 17—But No Fire

The Harrisburg fire department made its first run since June 17 Wednesday afternoon, but there was no fire, so the city is now in its second month without a fire being reported.

The fire department was called to the 600 block on West Sloan when the starter on Rosecoe Vaughn's automobile stuck and continued to grind away.

Vaughn called for mechanical assistance and also the fire department, being afraid the automobile might catch fire before a mechanic arrived.

The only damage was mechanical.

House, Senate Groups Vote Gov't Pay Hikes

Override Opposition Of Eisenhower; Postal Boost Also Approved

By United Press
Two congressional committees, overriding President Eisenhower's opposition, voted today in favor of pay increases for the government's 950,000 civil servants.

In developments on both sides of the Capitol:

—The House Post Office and Civil Service Committee approved pay boosts totalling $30 million dollars a year for the 950,000 classified civil service workers.

—The Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee favored a $41-million-dollar annual increase to the same federal employees.

The President has argued against this and other federal pay increase proposals on grounds they would aggravate the inflation.

Another bill, increasing the pay of postal workers by 12 per cent, is scheduled for House action and almost certain passage. It also was approved today by the Senate committee.

Other congressional news:

School Aid: The House Rules Committee cleared the federal school aid bill for a vote by the House. Speaker Sam Rayburn said the measure probably will be called up for action next Wednesday.

Cabaret Tax: The House Ways and Means Committee voted to cut the 20 per cent cabaret tax in half.

Civil Rights: Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland said advocates of President Eisenhower's controversial civil rights are ready to make some concessions to southern opponents. He declined to be specific.

Foreign Aid: Death of a member put off a showdown vote in the House on President Eisenhower's appeal for restoration of a tentatively approved 200-million-dollar cut in foreign aid. Speaker Sam Rayburn rescheduled the vote for Friday. The postponement was caused by the death in Chicago of Rep. James B. Fowler (D-Ill.). He was 82. The House adjourned as a gesture of respect.

Stockpiles: A special House consumer study subcommittee urged the President to plan immediately for emergency food stockpiles that would be needed in case of nuclear attack. A subcommittee report said the government is "utterly without plan" to feed civilian survivors of an attack against the United States and allied nations.

Maryland Beauty Named Miss United States In Miss Universe Contest

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Leona Gage, a black haired Underella from Maryland who entered the Miss Universe contest with only $10 in her pocket, Wednesday night won the coveted title of Miss United States—in a borrowed dress.

The green-eyed, long-legged Miss Maryland drew cheers from the audience at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium when she accepted the pearl crown from last year's Miss U.S.A. and Miss Universe, Carol Morris of Iowa.

At 5 feet 9½ inches, Miss Gage was the tallest of the contestants for the Miss U.S.A. title. She measures 36-23-36 and weighs 118 pounds.

The 21-year-old Leona and her cousin, Barbara Gage, had taken the two-way plane ticket Leona received as Miss Maryland and converted it into two one-way tickets, figuring to work their way back home if she lost.

The girls arrived in this seaport with only $20 between them that they had saved from modeling jobs.

In Leona's suitcase was a $45 gown she had bought at a sale in Baltimore. She wore that the first night of the world-wide beauty pageant. Wednesday night she paraded down the runway in a gown borrowed from a small dress shop in Long Beach.

"I went into see if I could buy a dress with our $20 and the man loaned it to me—he knew I was broke," she said with an embarrassed smile.

But now riches have come at last to Leona. The prizes include $2,000 cash, a world-wide tour, a complete wardrobe, a house trailer, and she will represent the United States in the Miss World contest in Europe.

The runners-up in order of selection were Miss Utah, Charlotte Sheffield; Miss West Virginia, Ruth Marie Parr; Miss Nevada, Joan Adams; and Miss Nebraska, Carolyn McGirr.

Bodies Severely Mangled by TNT Grenade

Were Conducting Test Operations Off Long Island

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) — Three sailors were killed and eight others injured, four seriously, by a "king sized hand grenade" which misfired Wednesday night aboard the Navy escort vessel Somersworth.

The bodies of the dead were "severely mangled" by fragments from the 2 1/2-pound charge of TNT in the grenade which is used in underwater sound experiments, Capt. Walter Wellham, chief medical officer at the Navy base here, said.

The Somersworth was conducting "test operations" 100 miles off Montauk Point, eastern tip of Long Island, when the explosion occurred at 5:45 p. m. on the forecastle deck, the Navy said.

From first reports Navy investigators believe a time fuse on the charge may have been defective. A board of officers here is conducting an investigation of the accident, the Navy said.

Praise Pharmacist Mates

Wellham said the flying steel fragments tore holes in the bodies of the dead. One arm was missing from one body, he said. He also said he had reports some of the four seriously injured were in poor condition.

The four seriously injured were taken off the Somersworth by the British liner Queen Mary and treated by the Cunard liner's medical officer before they were transferred to a Navy rescue ship.

A report from the Queen Mary's medical officer, Wellham said, praised highly the quick medical assistance given the wounded by two Navy pharmacist mates.

One, Corbett Radcliffe, of New Orleans, had escaped injury from the explosion by 10 seconds. He had just left the firing group when the blast occurred, Wellham said.

The Queen Mary's medical officers reported that Radcliffe and Chief Pharmacist Mate Clarence Williams, who boarded the Somersworth from the submarine Tigrante, had given first aid which meant a difference between life and immediate death to the four injured.

They treated the injured for shock and administered blood plasma, the liner's doctor said. Then they treated the injured's wounds.

Identify Dead

The Navy said the charges such as the one which exploded were used in underwater work "investigating sound transmission."

The Queen Mary stood by for more than three hours after taking aboard the four injured seamen, and then continued her eastward Atlantic crossing when they were removed to the Navy rescue ship Sunbird.

The four were taken to the Newport, R. I., naval hospital aboard the Sunbird.

The dead were:

Anthony Focca, pipefitter 1C, Groton, Conn.

John R. Turley, quartermaster 1C, New London, Conn.

Francis P. Brophy, 18, seaman, Malden, Mass.

Critically injured were Norman C. Bradford, 19, seaman, Columbus, Ohio; Irwin Zelanko, 20, fireman Brooklyn, N. Y.; Martin K. Fisher, 21, electronic technician 2C, New London, Conn.; and Delbert Littlehale, a civilian employed at the underwater sound laboratory in Groton, Conn.

King is Taken to Menard Penitentiary

Donald King of Eldorado was taken to Menard penitentiary today by Deputies Sheriff Charles Donelson and Eldorado Policeman Donnie Hopkins.

King was sentenced to not less than one year or more than two years in the penitentiary in Saline County Circuit Court Friday, July 12, on a burglary charge, with Judge C. E. Wright presiding.

Hot Enough for You?

No one can run the social man-
let of a summer without a complete glossary of weather conversation. In fact, our society probably would crack at the seams if we had to do without the weather cliches.

For those who haven't mastered this social must, we present a typical conversation, sparkling
with acute observations on the weather (which "everyone talks
about, but...").

"Hot enough for you?"

"Well, of course, it's not the heat, it's the humidity, you know."

"Looks like summer's really
here."

"We could use some rain. Hold down the dust, you know."

"It's good for the ducks, but
that's about all."

"Helps the crops."

"Yeah, helps the crops."

"I can't ever remember it being so hot."

"Oh, used to be a lot hotter
years ago."

"Yeah."

"Yeah."

"I don't think these H-bomb explosions help it any."

"They're not telling all they know about how it's changed the weather."

"They say if you drink something hot, it cools you off."

"That's what they say."

"Hot enough for you?"

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Astute Southern Leaders Have
Won Large Part Of Civil Rights Battle: Liberal Democrats Unhappy At GOP Know-
land's Leadership: Southern-
ers Are Bitter At Nixon.

WASHINGTON — One of the most skillful jobs of Senate maneuvers in years has been done
by Sen. Dick Russell of Georgia and Southern leaders in the civil rights debate. Even before this week's vote to take up the bill,
they had come close to arranging
private deals by which they would win about 50 per cent of their points.

Southern leaders still have two
opponents: Vice President Nixon
on one side, and an embattled
group of northern liberals led by Sen. Paul Douglas of Illinois on the other.

Nixon, who sees the huge bloc of Negro votes almost within Republican grasp, is determined that there be no throw-away on civil rights. As a result, he has aroused the undivided enmity of southern senators. They say privately that they can get along with Nixon's fellow Californian,
Bill Knowland. Only last January Knowland voted with them on the bill of filibusters, and they expect him to compromise
now.

But Nixon is tougher. The bitterness against him is intense.

Irony is that the liberal Democrats, including Douglas, Mc-Namara of Michigan, Clark of Pennsylvania, Pastore of Rhode Island, Neuberger of Oregon, now find themselves led by a man they have always opposed, Senator
Knowland. Or if he compromises,
then they may have to go over
to Nixon, a man they have opposed even more. For years they fought for civil rights when the going was really tough. Now they find the play taken away from them, by GOP johnnies-come-
lately.

Meanwhile, here are the shrewd
moves made by southern leaders
to strip the civil rights bill down
to a skeleton even before the real
debate got started.

1. Jury Trial — Sen. Lyndon
Johnson of Texas has a jury-trial
amendment just about tied up in blue ribbons. A good many Republicans and several northern Democrats are secretly ready to vote out trial-by-judge in case a judge's injunction is violated, and substitute trial-by-jury — in many cases trial-by-white-jury.

2. Other Civil Rights — This is Section 3 of the bill which embraces all civil rights, not merely voting rights, and would include
the enforcement of school desegregation.

President Eisenhower and Georgia's Dick Russell have now cut a lot of support from this part of the

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert H. Edwards
(Ronnie's Studio Photo)

Rev. and Mrs. Robert H. Edwards, who were married June 9 at the First Methodist church in Benton, are now making their home in Maryland where he is associate pastor of the Cecil United Parish.

Rev. Edwards is the former pastor of the Orient and Bethel Methodist churches and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Edwards, Galatia.

The bride, the former Miss Linda Browning, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Browning of Orient.

The Rev. Maurice Winn, Harrisburg district superintendent of the Methodist church, was assisted by the Rev. Robert Simpson, pastor of the Benton church, in an impressive afternoon service. The service was performed before an altar blanketed with white gladioli and lighted by white candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white Chantilly lace-over-satin gown featuring a sweetheart neckline and chapel length train. Her Eugene's illusion veil was secured with a tiara of seed pearls, and her bouquet of stephanotis was centered with a white orchid.

Miss Rosemary Iacometti of Orient sang "Because" and "Till the End of Time," and Mrs. George Leuchtefeld sang "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Nita Bellingly, church organist, presided at the organ.

Mrs. Janice Essick, Kanabec, matron of honor, wore a pink and white bouffant dress and carried a fan of blue carnations. Miss Nora Smith, West Frankfort, wore blue and white and carried a fan of pink carnations.

Karen Smith, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her ruffled white dress was complemented with a pink wrist corsage.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom chose blue dresses with white accessories for the wedding.

The best man was Bill Fester of Centralia, and the groomsmen were Phil Gardner of Mt. Vernon.

To Complete ROTC Summer Training

Richard E. Boyett, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Boyett, Route 1, Harrisburg, is scheduled to complete six weeks of ROTC summer training Aug. 5 at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., with members of the Missouri School of Mines. Rolla, cadet program.

No Gov't Plans to Immediately Lower FHA Down Payments

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration sources said today the government will not immediately lower down payments on federal-backed home loans despite new authority to do so.

Cadet Boyett was graduated from Harrisburg Township High School in 1953 and is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers at the college. He was employed by the Illinois Highway Division, Carbondale.

Dr. L. I. Webb, Harrisburg dentist, will participate in the First National Conference of Southern Baptist men to be held in Oklahoma City, Sept. 18-20. He will lead the opening prayer for the Thursday night session, Sept. 19. He is also one of 86 laymen who have made tours to foreign mission fields under the auspices of the Brotherhood Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention and will be featured along with these other men at the closing session on Friday night prior to a film presentation of the story of Baptist laymen touring the mission fields.

As the first national laymen's meeting ever conducted by Southern Baptists, it is expected to attract 8,000 men from 42 states. Theme for the three-day session will be "Free Men Through the Ages," emphasizing personal liberty and freedom of religion.

The sponsor of the conference is the Baptist Brotherhood Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention; James M. Sapp, Memphis, Tennessee, Secretary of Promotion; Bruce Carter, Miami, Oklahoma, Chairman of the Executive Committee. The Commission will meet for a preliminary meeting in Oklahoma City on September 17.

Saline County Social Security Payments Over $135,000 Monthly

A total of 2,851 persons in Saline county were getting social security insurance payments totalling $135,314 per month at the end of 1956, E. Bishop Hill, Social Security Administration district manager in Harrisburg, declared today.

At the end of 1956, monthly benefit payments were going to 592 wives or aged dependent husbands of old-age beneficiaries and to 308 aged widows or dependent aged widowers in Saline county. The 12-month increase in aged beneficiaries is due partly to the lowering from 65 to 62 of the age at which a woman without an entitled child in her care may qualify for benefits, Mr. Hill said. The lowering of the retirement age for women was one of the provisions of the 1956 amendments to the Social Security Act and became effective last November. It applies to retired women workers, wives of old-age beneficiaries, and widows or dependent mothers of deceased insured workers. Many women who would have had to wait up to three years longer before starting to get benefits under the old law became entitled to benefits in the last two months of 1956.

More Becoming Eligible

Noting that OASI coverage has taken hold rapidly in recent years, Mr. Hill pointed out that three-fourths of the men becoming 65 this year will be eligible for social security benefits. Of all people over 65 years of age, 62 percent are now drawing benefits or will be entitled to draw them when their income from work stops. In Saline county 1,470 retired workers were receiving $85,488 in monthly payments at the close of 1956.

In December 1956, 381 children in Saline county were being paid a total of $13,603 monthly. These were largely minor children of a deceased insured parent; a smaller number were children under 18 whose insured father or mother had retired. All of these were unmarried children under 18. While child's benefits ordinarily stop at age 18, Mr. Hill called attention to a recent change in the law which makes payments possible for a child over 18, based on the insured account of a retired or deceased parent, if the child became totally disabled before reaching 18. Payments will be made also to the mother who has the disabled child in her care. This provision did not become effective until January, 1957; consequently, disabled child

Woman is Asked For Advice—She Gives It

SIoux CITY, Iowa (AP)—Would Mrs. Betty Foxen, a housewife, be so kind as to give her impressions of modern advertising methods? the Des Moines Advertising Club asked.

Yes, she would, said Mrs. Foxen.

Then the fun flew. Mrs. Foxen, mother of three children, told the group of advertisers that "sweeping and implausible" claims for products built up customer resentment.

Moreover, she said, she and her friends were sick and tired of television commercials which "shouted at them," used "offensive words," or paraded a woman "who looked like she just got out of a beauty parlor."

Not through with her audience, Mrs. Foxen also complained about commercials which told children to "ask mother" to go out and buy such-and-such a product.

"Why don't you 'ask mother' yourselves?" she demanded.

What, then, was the way to the shopper's heart?

"Cartoon" commercials and "down-to-earth" announcers, she said.

Mrs. Foxen's husband is a salesman.

LACK OF FUNDS FAILS TO HINDER WEDDING PLANS

SHAWNEETOWN, July 19 —A young Joliet couple, determined to jolt to cupid's call Saturday afternoon, found that lack of funds is not too big an obstacle—especially when others who have recently entered into wedlock know of the plight.

Gordon Cooper, 21, and Mary Nussbaum, 18, had traveled as far as Morganfield, Ky., by bus which used up quite a bit of their meagre funds. They realized that taxi fare to Shawneetown was out of the question because they still needed most of the remaining funds for the return trip to Joliet.

The youngsters, therefore, started out hitchhiking. A few minutes later, however, they were picked up by Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Toombs of Morganfield, who on April 2 had been married at Shawneetown. When the Toombs' learned that the youngsters were in financial trouble, they drove them all the way to the country home of County Clerk and Mrs. Yules Wren where they obtained their license. Following the ceremony they returned them to Morganfield where they were soon on their way home, happily married, and thankful to a young man and woman who realized that a boost in a time such as this was greatly appreciated.

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Sammy Snead, shooting one of his finest rounds, led 64 survivors into two sudden-death 18-hole rounds in the PGA golf championship today with all the top favorites still in the running.

Doug Ford, the favorite; Walter Burkemo, one of the greatest match players in the game; defending champion Jackie Burke; 17 S. Open king Dick Mayer and most of the other "name" golfers were in the running, along with Snead, who is gunning for his fourth PGA championship.

Three ex-champs fell by the wayside in the opening 18-hole round of match play Wednesday. Former champions Chick Harbert, Chandler Harper and Jim Turnesa were eliminated along with Ed Furgol, the 1954 U. S. Open champion.

Snead Calls Penalty
Snead, despite calling a penalty on himself which cost him the 11th hole, defeated John Serafin of Pittston, Pa., 4 and 2, as he overpowered the hilly 6,773-yard Miami Valley Golf Club. He was six under par for the 16 holes it took him to close out the match.

That was the best golf of a day which produced 10 extra hole matches of the 64 that were played. In another brilliant exhibition, Gene Littler, who is in the tournament on a pass, bested Don Fairfield in a battle of birdies.

Cancer Society Expert Links Cigaretts to Lung, Other Diseases

WASHINGTON (AP) — An American Cancer Society expert told congressional investigators today that cigarette smoking is a cause of lung cancer and has a "severe effect" on a number of other diseases.

Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond, the society's research director, said "evidence that smoking is a serious health hazard has been accumulating slowly since about 1915."

He said recent studies have produced "overwhelming" evidence that cigarette smoking "is a causative factor of great importance in the occurrence of lung cancer."

He said there has been an "alarming trend in the death rates from heart disease and cancer," with the number of deaths rising from 2,500 in 1930 to an estimated 29,000 in 1956.

Hammond said cigarette smoking "causes an increase" in deaths from heart disease and has a "severe effect" on patients with peptic ulcers and Buerger's disease.

He also said there is evidence that smoking has an effect on death rates from respiratory diseases other than lung cancer.

Hammond was the opening witness at a House Government Operations subcommittee investigation of filter cigarettes.

Dr. Clarence Cook Little, chairman of the scientific advisory board to the tobacco industry's research committee, challenged the claims of a cause-and-effect relationship between smoking and lung cancer.

In prepared testimony, Little said:

"Non-smokers get lung cancer. The vast majority of heavy smokers never get lung cancer. Obviously there is no simple cause-and-effect mechanism resulting from cigarette smoking."

Little said that the per capita consumption of tobacco in England is much less than in the United States but that the incidence of lung cancer in England is much greater.

He said the "basic origins" of cancer are still unknown.

Preliminary Lie Test Reveals Slaying May Be Linked to Marilyn Sheppard Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The court of last resort advised Gov. C. William O'Neill today that a preliminary lie detector test showed that Joseph Wedler told the truth in a Florida prison when he said he may have killed Marilyn Sheppard.

Wedler, an escapee from a Florida prison road gang, told authorities in De Land, Fla., he killed a woman in the Cleveland area on July 4, 1954, the night Mrs. Sheppard was killed. He did not mention Mrs. Sheppard by name in the statement he gave to Florida authorities.

The Ohio governor said he had received a telegram from Earle Stanley Gardner, a writer of mystery stories, who conducts the court of last resort for a magazine.

The text of the telegram received by O'Neill:

"Alex Gregory completed preliminary tests at 1 a. m. Thursday, Florida time, after three hour interview. So far polygraph tests give no indication of falsehood."

"However, there are certain minor details in Wedler's story which do not agree with known facts. There is possibility these are due to the fact that Wedler admits being under influence of drugs at the time of the crime."

"While Gregory has so far found no indication of falsehood in repeated tests, he desires continued examination when the subject has been given a night of rest."

Graham Plans New Crusades

NEW YORK (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham said today he hopes to conduct crusades for Christ in Sydney, Australia and Birmingham, England, in 1959.

Graham revealed tentative plans for the new crusades as he prepared for the biggest revival meeting of his career, to be held in the 67,000-seat Yankee Stadium Saturday. Vice President Richard M. Nixon confirmed in Washington late Wednesday an earlier United Press report he would come to New York to take part in the stadium rally.

Graham said he would "give much prayer" to tentative plans to hold the Australian crusade in March, April and May of 1959. The crusade would have offshoots from Sydney into Melbourne and three other major cities, as well as Auckland, New Zealand.

The projected Birmingham crusade which would cover the entire "Midlands" section of Great Britain is tentatively planned for September, 1959.

Parolee Demands Readmittance to Menard Penitentiary

CHESTER, Ill. (AP) — A prison parolee, fed up with reporting his comings and goings to a parole officer, relaxed in county jail today while authorities decided whether to allow him back in state prison.

The parolee, Jack Douglas, 32, appeared at the gates of the state penitentiary Wednesday demanding readmittance.

"I'm getting tired of people telling me what I can and can't do," he said. "I want back in prison to finish my parole."

He still has 44 days to serve out his term.

Shoulder's Son Held in Burglary Attempt in Indiana

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — Louis D. Shoulders Jr., 29, son of a former St. Louis police lieutenant imprisoned in the Greenleaf kidnap case, was held today for investigation into an attempted burglary.

Shoulders, held on a technical charge of loitering, was arrested by police in a field Wednesday following the pursuit of a man who jumped from the roof of a supermarket.

Shoulders' father served a prison term on perjury charges in involving $300,000 in missing ransom money in the kidnap-slaying of Bobby Greenleaf several years ago.

Young Shoulders denied any part in the robbery attempt, but said he was under $25,000 bond to Madison County, Ill. He was indicted in 1953 in connection with the slaying of an East St. Louis, Ill., cab driver, Bobbie Carr.

Two Babies Survive While Mothers are Fatally Injured

By United Press

Two babies being held in arms by their mother, survived by seeming miracles when death struck the women, one from a lightning bolt in Florida and the other from an automobile in Mississippi.

One child was thrown unharmed up on the top of a car that fatally injured his mother Wednesday at New Albany, Miss. and the other child was left unscathed when lightning instantly killed his mother.

Mrs. G. C. Wilhite, 23, of New Albany, was carrying her 6-month-old boy in her arms along a country road when she was struck by the car. She died in a hospital four hours later.

Mrs. Harvey King, 25, of Dade City, Fla. picked up her son Ron, 2, and carried him to a safe place to inspect an oak tree that had just been struck by lightning two days ago. A second bolt struck the tree, killing Mrs. King.

The child fell to the ground before the mother's body without receiving the slightest injury from the bolt.

Army to Trim Its Draft Calls

WASHINGTON (AP) — Informed sources said today the Army expects to make a second 50,000-man cut in its strength possibly by next June.

The new cut plus the 50,000-man cut ordered this week would reduce the Army to 900,000 men—the same strength as the Air Force will have at that time.

The Army announced Wednesday night that it will trim its monthly draft calls as a result of the first 50,000 man cut. It said it could not say at this time how much the draft calls will be reduced.

Husband of Former Local Woman is Fatally Injured

C. W. Wilkinson, 72, husband of the former Lillie Bowers of Harrisburg, was killed instantly Sunday, July 13, when he walked into the path of a southbound Illinois Central passenger train in Arcola.

Mrs. Wilkinson has three sisters living in the Harrisburg area, Mrs. Mary Butler and Mrs. Harvey Deaton, Harrisburg, and Mrs. J. B. Deaton, Carrier Mills. Mrs. Walter Johnson of Evansville, Ind., is her sister also, and they are children of the late Rev. and Mrs. John L. Logsdon of Harrisburg. Many relatives of the Logsdon family still live in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson were married in 1952 and Mrs. Wilkinson moved to Arcola in November of that year, where Mr. Wilkinson had been a farmer all of his life, until his retirement.

The funeral was held at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Shrader funeral home in Arcola. Rev. Owen Stuart officiated and burial was in the Arcola cemetery.

The coroner's inquest determined that the death was accidental and witnesses said that Mr. Wilkinson was "hard of hearing," did not see or hear the train travelling at about 90 miles an hour, until it was too close for him to get out of its path.

Mrs. Wilkinson is visiting with her sisters in Harrisburg for a few days before returning to her home in Arcola.

GENERAL TELEPHONE COMPANY IS MAKING CHANGES!

Moving day is in the offing for your Telephone Company and there are many changes being made as the work of converting to dial operation progresses.

You — the customer — will be affected by some of these changes! For the few weeks before your new dial service is in operation we ask that you supply your frequent callers with your new telephone number since we find it necessary to discontinue intercepting calls for changed numbers.

There will be no change in the handling of information calls — all requests for customers' numbers will be supplied in the usual manner. We have, however, prepared a special supplemental directory which lists many number changes made during the conversion period. This directory which will reach you within a few days, lists changes made prior to June 12, 1957.

Giardello Wins Decision Over Chico Vejar

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 18.—The managers of middleweights Joey Giardello and Chico Vejar considered a return September match today because of Wednesday night's excellent fight at Exposition Center in which Giardello won a unanimous decision.

It extended Giardello's unbeaten string to 11 straight.

Unranked Vejar, the 4-1 underdog, provided such unexpectedly stiff competition in the nationally televised 10-rounder that many of the 4,500 fans thought he had won.

Chico of Stamford, Conn., said today, "I thought I won unquestionably. I out-speeded him in every round. I'll prove it in a return bout."

Cardinals Regain Lead in Close National L. Race with 7-3 Victory Over Dodgers

By United Press

The National League race resembled a crowded telephone booth today with four other clubs waiting around impatiently to put in a pennant call as soon as they can get the first-place Cardinals off the line.

St. Louis just managed to sneak into the lead by one percentage point with a 7-3 victory over Brooklyn Wednesday night.

But the Cards know they are being pressed and that their time may run out any moment. Milwaukee is first in line, only one percentage point away from the lead. Philadelphia is in third place, only a half-game back, while Brooklyn is 1 1/2 games off.

The pace and Cincinnati only two. "This thing is so tight right now," commented Red Sox manager Birdie Tebbetts, "that three clubs can change places between lunchtime and dinner."

To prove Tebbetts' point, the Braves dumped the Phillies from first place to third by beating them, 10-3, Wednesday night. Cincinnati edged the Giants, 5-4, and the Cubs defeated the Pirates, 4-3, in their own private battle for seventh place.

Yanks Hold Edge

The Yankees regained their 4-game lead in the American League with a 5-1 decision over Detroit, Washington snapped Cleveland's five-game winning streak, 11-6; Chicago beat Baltimore, 3-1, and Kansas City went 12 innings to top Boston, 4-3.

In beating Brooklyn, the Cardinals ended Don Newcombe's six-year mastery over them by defeating him for the first time since Aug. 23, 1951. He had beaten them 12 times since then. They chased him with a four-run rally in the fourth inning that included a two-run homer by Wally Moon. Del Ennis also homered for the Cards as Sam Jones struck out 12 batters in registering his eighth victory.

Milwaukee's victory over the Phillies was marked by a first-inning rhabarb in which Philadelphia starter Robin Roberts had to be restrained from attacking umpire Jacko Conlan. The fireworks started over a double play call that went against the Phils. Hank Aaron and Red Schoendienst each collected three hits in Milwaukee's 13-hit attack. Roberts was ejected in the first inning and his successor, Jack Meyer, was the loser. Lew Burdette was the winner.

George Crowe hit a pair of homers and drove in four runs in Cincinnati's triumph over the Giants. Brooks Lawrence notched his 10th victory although he gave way to Paul Sanchez in the eighth. Curt Barclay was the loser.

Ernie Banks' squeeze bunt with two out in the seventh inning brought in Bob Speake with the Cubs' winning run. Moe Praboriski had to have help from Dick Littlefield for his fifth win while Ronnie Kline suffered his 13th setback.

The McDaniel Boys

Lindy Won't Give Batters the Brush-Off, But Batters Better Inspect Von Closely

By JIMMY BRESLIN
NEA Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Fred Hutchinson had just gotten up and he had on a T-shirt and pair of slacks and was padding around his hotel suite in bare feet, groping for the first cigarette of the day and talking about how it is to manage a team that has two pitchers like Lindy and Von McDaniel.

"They're religious boys," the manager of the St. Louis Cardinals began. "The older one, Lindy, he's studying theology. So I wonder how I talk during ordinary conversation. . . . I don't know."

Lindy McDaniel Von McDaniel

about the rest of the fellows, but I'm the manager, so I do it that way.

"Then something happens during a game and I jump up and yell something like — — — and so does everybody else and you don't really know you're saying anything. Lindy, I notice he just sits there quietly and doesn't notice anything. But he's been around a bit now."

"Von is only with us six weeks and it's all new to him. He's only 18. He's never heard any ballplayers' language before, most of it, anyhow, so he looks down at us and gets a kick out of it."

"I have trouble getting Lindy to pitch a little tougher," Hutchinson got up, picked a magazine off the coffee table, rolled it up and took a batting pose in the middle of the room.

"Lindy is a low ball pitcher," he said, "down around here and out like a bat." He bent over and ran his hand back and forth across his knees. "So a batter gets in here against him and starts coming down and leaning over so he can get at those pitches."

"I tell Lindy to make 'em get back." He ran his hand across his ear quickly. "I don't mean to throw it here. I mean just put it inside and high. Around here," he moved his hand across his chest.

"That would back the batter away. Then then him up. He wouldn't be bent over. Leave for those low pitches. But the kid won't do it."

"Von is different. I think I haven't talked to him about it but I think he'd do it. He'll do anything to be a real good pitcher."

"So the next time he gets up down he goes. The pitcher was just protecting his interest. But the umpire steps up and starts yelling 'One more of those and you're out of the game!' So two pitches later, Cunningham doubles. He hit the Reds the whole series. Hit a liner back to the box that hurt Herschel Freeman's foot."

"Cunningham knows the score. Nobody was going to stand there and let him knock his brains out. That's the way this game is. But I can't get Lindy to do it that way."

"Walter Cooper has been around this club a long time and he says he hasn't seen pitchers as good as these kids break in since guys like Ernie White and Johnny Beasley. That was back in the early 40's and they were as good as you find."

"Both these kids are going to be real good pitchers. I thought we'd win at the start of the year and that was without figuring on them so much. Now I know we're in for some fun."

Down in the coffee shop, Lindy and Von McDaniel sat in a row and sported markets, having a busy day. Von doesn't even drink coffee. He has a cone in the morning and a milk shake at night.

But Fred Hutchinson believes he is for a coach to keep hitters from taking a hold. Even if Lindy, 20-2, and the leader, don't want to play that way.

Nan now was sitting very still in the corner of the boat seat; her head was down so that Garde looked at the top of her shiny black head, the crescents made by her dark eyebrows and by her eye lashes, her straight nose, her pretty mouth. Her hands were busy with the matter of creasing the cloth of her shorts. But he knew that her stillness concealed raw, burning hurt.

"Valley stayed on, of course. She sent for some clothes and bought some—and she and Kurt . . .

"Finally a night came when I saw them down on the pier together, his arms were around her, and her head was back—and they kissed." She coughed, and took a deep breath, and went on.

"Kurt had brought me home, and—well, I suppose he met Valley down on the pier by previous arrangement."

"Did they know you'd seen them?" Garde had to exert effort to keep his tone calm.

"Oh, no. I didn't go too close—as I say, it was moonlight, and with the riding lights—well, I watched them for only a minute. And then I went up the hill again—you know—through the yards."

For a time they cruised along, the breeze, the sun, the river exerting each its own balm. Garde debated whether the discussion should be continued.

She shook her head. "Not one word, Garde. I knew he was seeing her, and yet, with me, he was just as he had been before she came. He called me each day, he took me places—he was kind to me and attentive. But, still, certain things were different. We didn't go on making definite plans for our marriage. Just before Valley came, we'd begun to look at house plans; we were going to build our own home at the edge of the Lillard grounds. But after she came, we didn't do anything more about that."

A noisy, spluttering outboard bore down upon them and passed with a waving of hands and shouted greetings.

"I believe," Nan resumed, "that it shocked Valley to know that she still loved Kurt, that a man could exert such a hold upon her. Through all those years—and I believe we both realized this—it had been Kurt's fault that Valley had never married."

Again he nodded in agreement.

"There was the usual big dance at the club on Saturday night. It's always a big thing; we get in a good band; the women dress up; we have guests—generally house guests of the members. That night Valley wore white—and she looked radiant. She'd sent for some of her clothes and she offered to let me wear one of her dresses. I remember that I wasn't very nice about the way I said 'No.' I spoke brusquely to her when she insisted—because I was hurt, I suppose. But anyway, I just wore my old red, which I'd worn so often before that it was familiar to the least observant."

"So—well, you know how it is here, Garde. Until you came, our crowd didn't offer anything in the way of an extra man. They were all married or going steady with some girl—and I didn't have much choice."

"I asked Ben to go with us to the dance, knowing that Kurt wouldn't like it, and he didn't. You see, he really had had trouble with Ben some years before. They talked about that so much at the trial! Kurt hated any mention of it, he'd have gladly forgotten the whole thing."

"Dr. Tom was—well, of course you didn't know him before his stroke. Most people loved him dearly, and I did myself. But I've gotten angry with him a time or two for telling me things. Oh, once, that I had too bright lip stick on when I sang in the choir. He liked everything to be just so, all proper and dignified! And I suppose he could have taken steps to stop Ben's yelling at Kurt on the street."

blackmail, Garde?" She leaned toward him to express her earnestness.

"But, Nan," he insisted, "if the thing was a matter of blackmail—it was a matter of blackmail!"

"Well, of course—I don't know if he did any more than tell Ben to let Kurt alone. I remember he bragged to me about having asked him which Doc Lillard he wanted to ask him questions. 'Maybe I should have asked about it and I wouldn't. He had a way of suggesting unpleasant things that I didn't like to know about, so whenever he got on that line, I just wouldn't let the conversation continue. I didn't even things he did, 'that night at the dance, Valley was not at all nice to Ben, nor was Kurt. There's no doubt of that!'

"So," said Garde, "the one of the things we know."

"Mmmmm." She looked out again at the view they had of the river and the sky. "So, maybe to
